

This is Britain - Bonfire Night

1) When is Bonfire Night celebrated?

.....

2) Who is that man? .....

3) His story

Look at the pictures. With the help of the video, match the sentences with the corresponding pictures.

- That's why today, on November 5th, people burn a Guy (Fawkes) on a bonfire and organise fireworks parties to celebrate the event.
- In 1603, James I becomes King of Britain.
- Guy Fawkes, an explosive expert, helps for the plot.
- The Parliament persuades James to introduce new laws against Catholics.
- They hide 36 barrels of gunpowder under the Houses of Parliament.
- So, in 1604, a group of Catholics decides to blow up the Houses of Parliament with explosives.
- But the King discovers the plot and the conspirators are arrested on November 5th, 1605.

Voc :

Fireworks : feux d'artifice

a plot : un complot

Sparkles :

4) Celebrate Bonfire Night

Circle the traditions.

- Go to the fireworks display
- Sing traditional songs
- Friends come to the house
- Make a Guy and burn it
- Wear fancy dress
- Light sparklers
- Eat pancakes

5) What do people eat ? .....

6) Where do they eat ?      in the dining-room      in the garden

RECAP