Did you know that?

The shamrock is the symbol of Ireland.

The Leprechaun is a symbol of St Patrick's Day. The name is made from the combination of the word "luchorpan" (small person) and a word meaning "shoemaker".

Leprechauns are represented as tiny elves. They are believed to be very rich. They are said to hide their gold in various places, but if people want to know where it is hidden, they must capture them. However they always manage to escape and play tricks on people who never manage to get their treasure.
