

SNAPSHOTS ON MANHATTAN, NEW YORK

How well do you know New-York City ?

➔ These are extracts from a guidebook to NY.

➔ Match each place with its description.

Central Park	Wall Street	Times Square
Empire State Building	Chinatown	Ground Zero
Statue of Liberty	Greenwich Village	Ellis Island

1. You will find cheap, tasty food in the many restaurants and street markets which sell everything from imitation luxury watches to exotic fruit and vegetables. You'll also see many Asian faces!

Name of place Photo letter ?

2. In the middle of Broadway (the Theatre district), it is best seen at night, busy and blazing with neon signs, coloured lights and flashing advertisements.

Name of place Photo letter ?

3. Named after the wall Peter Stuyvesant built in 1653 to protect New Amsterdam from the Indians, it is the location of the New York Stock Exchange. The area surrounding it is the busy financial district.

Name of place Photo letter ?

4. Open spaces with trees, lakes, midnight jogging (for those who aren't afraid of being mugged!) and free performances of Shakespeare. At week-ends, it is the place where New Yorkers come to relax, read, play basket-ball, roller-skate...

Name of place Photo letter ?

5. It was the tallest building in the world when it was used for the final scene of the original "King Kong" in 1933.

Name of place Photo letter ?

6. This part of NY, with its narrow, winding streets and interesting cafes, used to be the artists', writers' and hippies' district. It is sometimes simply called "the Village", and has kept its bohemian feeling.

Name of place Photo letter ?

7. Sculpted by the Frenchman Bartholdi in 1886, it has been a symbol of welcome for immigrants ever since.

Name of place Photo letter ?

8. This used to be the place where the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center stood, before the 9/11 attacks... Now all tourists can see is a new tower and a memorial.

Name of place Photo letter ?

9. Immigrants used to arrive by boat on this island, where after a series of controls (regarding their health, their ability to read and write, their financial situation etc), American authorities decided if they could enter the U.S. or not.

Name of place Photo letter ?