

There's Nothing Like Australia!

♪ Before you watch:

Look at the pictures and guess what Australian animals can be called ...

... "this duck-billed mammal"? - _____

... "these furry things that bounce around in herds"? - _____

What are groups of kangaroo really called? _____

<https://www.funtrivia.com/askft/Question3441.html>

What do you know about koalas? Are they related to bears? _____

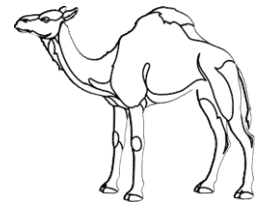

If you want to learn more about koalas, visit this page

<https://www.koalaexpress.com.au/facts1.htm#:~:text=Koalas%20aren't%20bears%20as,koala%20is%20a%20marsupial%20mammal.>

Are there any camels in Australia? _____

Check if your answer is right

<http://www.environment.gov.au/biodiversity/invasive/publications/pubs/camel-factsheet.pdf>

Check the map of Australia for these places and draw them on the outline map here

Darwin

Bass Strait

Do you know these words?

Match the words to their meaning:

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| mate | <input type="radio"/> strange, beautiful; |
| billabong | <input type="radio"/> a lake that is formed when a river floods; |
| coastline | <input type="radio"/> Australian word for «friend»; |
| bay | <input type="radio"/> a large plant which is smaller than the tree; |
| mammal | <input type="radio"/> thousands of years old; |
| sunrise | <input type="radio"/> part of the sea partly surrounded by a wide curve of the land; |
| wondrous | <input type="radio"/> any animal that gives birth to live babies, not eggs, and feeds them on milk ; |
| ainciant | <input type="radio"/> the land along a coast of the sea or ocean; |
| shrub | <input type="radio"/> the time when the sun first appears in the sky in the morning; |