

The Statue of Liberty

This photo shows a statue/monument which is called "Statue of Liberty" =qui (antécédent: pas une personne)
 It's one of the most visited places / attractions in New York harbor.
= l'un des lieux les plus visités =port

In the foreground, we can see people who are walking and = be+ V-ing --> action décrite are taking photos.

In the background, there is Ellis Island, which was an entry centre for immigrants. People used to go through it from 1892 to 1943. Today, it =avant, ils avaient l'habitude de...

has become a museum
=est devenu

I guess tourists feel impressed / thrilled to see the Statue of Liberty. It seems very impressive. I'd like to see it once in my life because it must be breathtaking/amazing!

Ground Zero

This photo shows a place in New York =dont le nom est whose name's Ground Zero // 9/11 memorial.
 It's famous because it's where the 9/11/2001 attacks took place.

It's one of the most visited places in Manhattan / New York City

=au premier plan
 In the foreground, we can see 2 pools where the twin towers of the World Trade Center used to be. Now it has become a memorial for the victims.

In the background, there is a new tower/skyscraper which is called "the Liberty Tower".
= à l'arrière plan =qui s'appelle

On September, 11th, 2001, the two towers were destroyed by terrorists who took control of 2 planes. There were more than 2900 people who died / passed away.
=there are (au passé) =qui (antécédent : une personne)

If you want to pay tribute to the victims and understand what = rendre hommage
happened, you have to go there.