

Whose hair?

Lumni

Her hair is fair.

Their hair is long and brown.

His hair is black.

Their hair is black and spiky.

Let's recap : à qui ça appartient !

à moi : my eyes (mes yeux)

à toi ou à vous : your hair (tes cheveux/vos cheveux)

à lui : his T-shirt (son t-shirt)

à elle : her bag (son sac)

à nous : our teacher (notre professeur)

à eux ou à elles : their nose (leur nez)

Attention !

Whose est un mot interrogatif qui sert à demander « à qui » appartient quelque chose.

Exemple : Whose bag is it ? = à qui appartient ce sac ? It's their bag ! (c'est leur sac !)

Let's practise!

Lumni

“ _____ eyes are blue, I love them!”

This is a photo of my sister, _____ hair is long and dark.

“I look like my father, we've got the same hair, _____ hair is red and curly.”

Tom has got a small nose but _____ nose is all red!

“Stop eating these sweets!!! _____ tongue is all blue now!”

My brothers are twins, _____ eyes are blue.

Let's practise!

Lumni

“ My eyes are blue, I love them!”

This is a photo of my sister, her hair is long and dark.

“I look like my father, we've got the same hair, our hair is red and curly.”

Tom has got a small nose but his nose is all red!

“Stop eating these sweets!!! your tongue is all blue now!”

My brothers are twins, their eyes are blue.

