

What is your opinion about bullying ?

What do you think about it?

Mike, 14, London, England.

I think that bullying is pointless. There is no point in putting someone else down. On social media, I believe that if everyone keeps their comments to themselves, everything would be better and no ones' feelings would be hurt. If you know someone getting bullied, why don't you talk to someone about it and get help and try to stop it ?

Kate, 13, Miami, USA

I hate bullying, it's wrong and there is NEVER an excuse for bullying. It is just horrible and should be stopped. Fortunately i've never really seen it happen.

In my opinion, people bully others to make themselves feel important and bigger. They probably have a low self esteem and want to be known as a strong person....The best thing you can do to a bully is ignore them...but if they get physical, tell someone.

Kevin, 13, Seattle, USA.

I think, no I'm sure, that bullying is stupid and useless. I've seen someone being bullied online and I reported it to make it stop.

I don't understand why people do it and I don't see the fun and joy in making people feel like nothing ! Bullies make people feel so sad and lonely. It's UNFAIR !

Ignoring the bully is a solution.
You should talk to someone.
One thing you can do is to report cyberbullying.
People shouldn't comment or criticize others.
Bullies make people feel alone and desperate.
Bullies bully to make themselves look bigger.
