 Helena Peters
 30 June at 8:52 PM

This photo was taken this morning outside the hotel where they're holding the conference on climate change – I'm in the middle. There were about a thousand of us demonstrating. I used to think people were making too much fuss about climate change so I wouldn't have dreamed of protesting. However, my eyes were opened when I saw a documentary about the effects of global warming on our weather. And we are to blame. It's not too late to prevent the planet from dying, but we must all do something about it now – especially the politicians. It's time they stopped talking and took action!
