

Complete the synopsis of the film with the sentences a – h.

This is the story of Truman Burbank, a 29 year old insurance salesman who lives in a comfortable town called Seahaven, _____, probably off the coast of Florida.

Truman is a sincere and very nice person _____, and little by little, he learns the truth: Ever since he was born, Truman has been filmed for a live television show _____, and thus everything and everyone that he thinks he knows is in fact part of a giant television studio designed to record his life.

Truman begins to discover the reality of his world when the television producers of "The Truman Show" begin to make silly mistakes _____. After listening to a radio broadcast _____ and then seeing workers _____ as if it were part of a movie set (which it is!), Truman decides he needs to get away from Seahaven. He tells his wife and best friend that he wants to go to the island of Fiji, _____. Thus, the producers of the show must think of every possible way to convince Truman _____, without of course, admitting to him that his whole world is actually a giant, fake TV studio.

- a) that give Truman an idea of what is really happening
- b) who begins to suspect that there is something very strange going on his life
- c) who look like they're fixing his own office building
- d) that is broadcast 24 hours a day to the rest of the world
- e) where the family of a girl he once liked very much had apparently moved
- f) which is located on an island
- g) that it would really be much better if he stayed home in Seahaven
- h) that seems to be broadcasting everything he is doing