WELCOME TO LOS ANGELES Report

This pavement* in Hollywood is decorated with more than 2,600 stars. Each star has the name of a famous actor, musician or star of the entertainment* industry. It's popular with tourists, but Americans come here too. Some people dress* up as characters* from films. It's crazy!

Roman Laurent/Mappp

More than nine million visitors came here last year! The studio tour is the highlight*: visitors take a bus around film* sets and, if they are lucky, they might see a film or a TV series being made! But Universal Studios is also a theme park. This is The Simpsons Ride, a virtual reality rollercoaster*!
