

Let me introduce myself.

Hi ! My name is Tom. I'm a thirteen year-old American boy. I live in Los Angeles with my parents. Have you been to California? It's amazing here : our house is close to the ocean and it's warm almost all year round. Actually, we moved here two years ago. I grew up in San Francisco. I'm an only child but I have two cousins.

Yesterday, it was back-to-school day. I was a bit nervous and stressed but it's OK now. This year I'm in 8th Grade. Fortunately, I already made some friends so I feel way better now. My favorite school subject is P.E because i love sports. I learn French this year, it's fun ! I wish I could speak French fluently so I can go visit France some day. Classes always start at 8am and finish at 3pm.

In my free time

I usually do sports. I go swimming once a week, on Mondays from 6pm to 8pm. I enjoy it very much. I also have another hobby : I am crazy about music, so I often listen to music after school, when I'm alone in my room.

What I like the most is going to the movies with my best friend, Kim, on Saturday nights. It's fun ! Unlike my best friend, football is not my cup of tea. I am not interested in this sport at all. I prefer tennis to football. I never read, but my best friend says it's a good way to calm down and focus.

Qualities and weaknesses

First of all, I think I am extremely helpful because I always help students in difficulty.

Then, I am quite athletic because I usually go swimming after school. I like it very much but it's sometimes difficult!

Also, I'm not talkative at all because I never chat in class.

You can count on me because I'm a calm and respectful person.

Finally, I am motivated and I want to give the best of myself.
