

UNIT 1 – FINAL TASK

FILL IN THE BLANKS

Complete the dialogue with the missing words.

- Teacher: Hello! Come _____, please.
 John: Good morning!
 Teacher: Hello! I'm your new English teacher. My name _____ Mr Smith. And you?
 John: My name _____ John.
 Teacher: Nice to meet you! How old _____ you?
 John: I _____ eleven years old.
 Teacher: Where _____ you from?
 John: I _____ from France.
 Teacher: Great! Nice to meet you!
- Teacher: Now, sit _____, please. Take your copybook and your pencil case.
 Teacher: What's the weather _____ today?
 John: Today it _____ sunny and not very warm.
 Teacher: What's the date today?
 John: Today it _____ Wednesday, the _____ of September.
 Teacher: Very good! Open your copybook and _____ the date.
 John: _____ it correct, Sir?
 Teacher: Yes, good job!
- Teacher: What's your favourite day?
 John: My favourite day _____ Wednesday because I don't _____ school in the afternoon.
 Teacher: Great! Look, it's 12:05 pm. _____ your things in your school bag and go out!
 John: Thank you, Sir! No homework?
 Teacher: No homework! See you on _____!
 John: Bye, Sir!

5 CONSEILS POUR RÉUSSIR SON EXPRESSION ORALE

1

Je m'entraîne à deux et je répète plusieurs fois mon dialogue.

I practice in pairs and I repeat my dialogue several times.

2

Je parle fort et clairement : je ne parle ni trop vite ni trop doucement.

I speak loudly and clearly : I don't speak too fast or too quietly.

3

Je fais attention à ma prononciation et je vérifie les mots difficiles.

I pay attention to my pronunciation and I check difficult words.

4

Si je ne comprends pas une question, je peux demander :

If I don't understand a question, I can ask :

Can you repeat, please ?

Can you help me, please ?

5

Je regarde mon camarade et mon professeur et je rends mon dialogue vivant : je ne lis pas mes notes tout le temps !

I look at my partner and my teacher and I make my dialogue lively : I don't read my notes all the time!

